GreenerGreenGrass Adds Products to Internet Giant Amazon.com

Natural Liquid Lawn Care Products are Now Available through Amazon

PORTLAND, ME — November 20, 2009 — GreenerGreenGrass, seller of all-natural and organic lawn care products in liquid form, now offers their full line of products through the popular internet retailer Amazon.com. By partnering with Amazon.com, GreenerGreenGrass is exposing millions of new customers to its liquid lawn care products, including liquid fertilizer, aerator, dethatcher, soil booster, and winterizer. Existing customers with Amazon.com accounts will benefit from the store's unique one-click checkout process, allowing them to streamline their shopping experience.

A spokesperson for the company said, "After a year of successful sales through our own website, we are excited to expand our reach to Amazon.com customers who want to easily purchase natural liquid lawn care products. We look forward to extending our exceptional customer service to a new group of gardeners and lawn care enthusiasts."

Founded in 2008, GreenerGreenGrass is dedicated to providing natural and organic lawn care products that are safe for children, pets and the planet.
